U.S. DEATHS NEAR 100,000, AN INCALCULABLE

They Were Not Simply Names on a List. They Were Us.

Numbers above cannot possibly measure the impact of the coronavirus, nor can, whether it is the number of deaths, the jobs interrupted or lives cut short. As the country faces a grim tally of 100,000 deaths attributed to the virus, The New York Times secured obituaries and death notices of the victims. The 1,000 people here reflect just 1 percent of the 100,000 who were never numbered.

EU vil ha enda mer norsk olje og gass

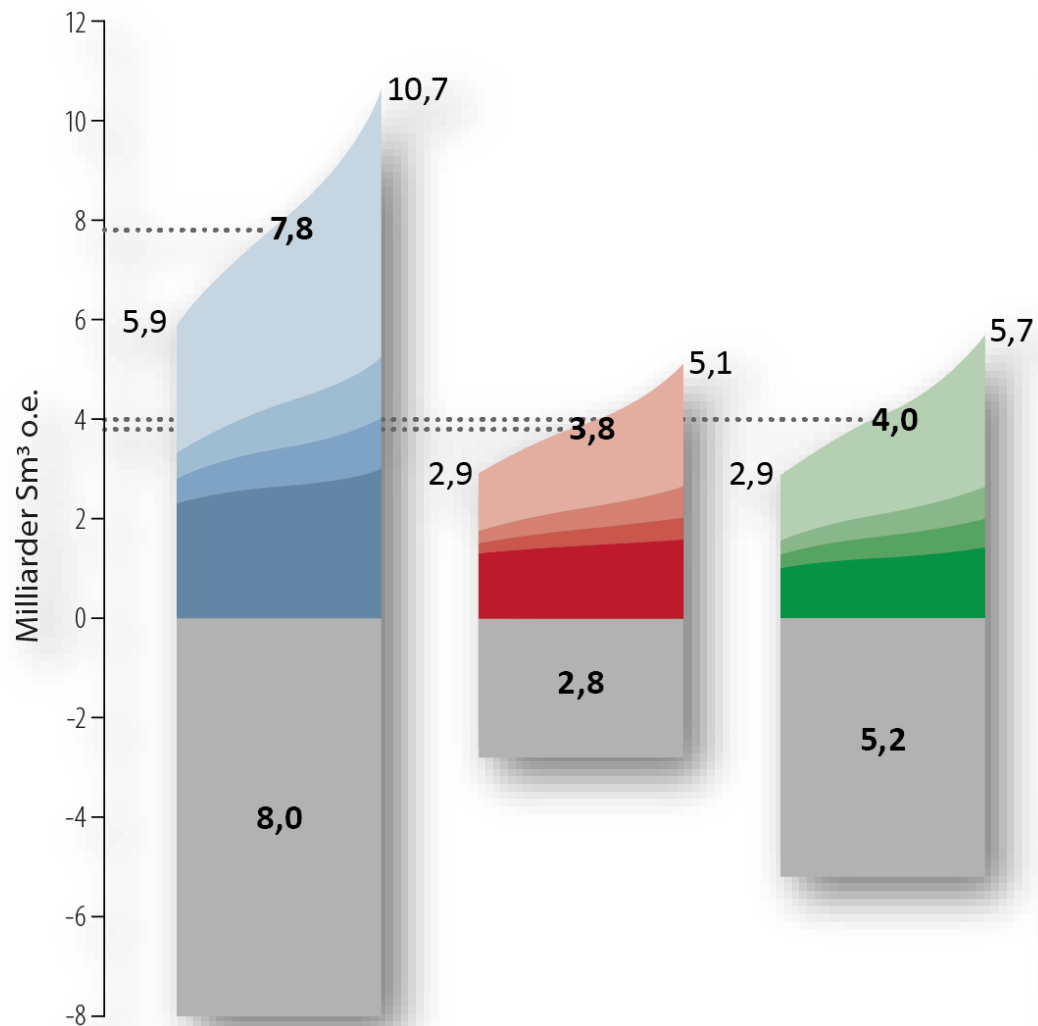

EU kommer til å ha bruk for både olje og gass fra Norge i lang tid fremover, heter det i en felles uttalelse fra oljeminister Terje Aasland og EUs energitopper.
