

Cretaceous Park: Understanding Cretaceous Stratigraphic Architecture & Reservoir Quality

Valhall, NPD in Stavanger, 16th- 17th October 2019

Day 2: Thursday 17th October
Welcome: Organizing committee
09:00	Keynote speaker – Dag Karlsen (UiO)
09:45	Jon Ineson (GEUS) - Inversion versus eustasy: controls on chalk reservoir architecture and facies in the Danish Central Graben
10:15	Haydon Bailey (Network Stratigraphic) - The forensic use of calcareous microfossils, with particular reference to the Soham murder case
10:45	Coffee/Tea break
Chairs:
11:00	John Berry (Aker BP) - Chalk deposition, reservoir quality and recent drilling on the Hod Field
11:30	Jon Sætrum (ResOptima) - Uncertainty centric reservoir modelling - why being less certain ultimately increase our confidence
12:15	Lunch break
Chairs:
13:00	Keynote speaker – Snorre Olaussen (UNIS) - Middle Jurassic to Lower Cretaceous Clastic Wedges in the north Atlantic, Barents Sea and High Arctic
13:45	Martin Vögele (OMV) - Matching geophysical fragments to a yet unknown geological frame: Cretaceous lithology and fluid prediction in the Barents Sea
14:15	Romain Corseri (VBPR) - Exploring the Lower Cretaceous sequence in the SW Barents Sea using high-resolution P-Cable 2D and 3D seismic data
14:45	Coffee/Tea break
Chairs:
15:00	Timur Fayzullaev (Equinor) - Kayak - discovering a new play in Johan Castberg
